

NEW WORLD ALLIANCES

EXECUTIVE OFFICE

New World Alliances Office of the CEO and Head of World Affairs

Date: March 11, 2025

To: Students looking for work experience or needing a project

Attention all social media managers, graphic designers, personal assistants, web designers, content writers, researchers, and AI experts (students).

New World Alliance is an international human rights organization that was founded out of the need to protect the people of the earth against tyranny and to safeguard their human rights from governments and constitutions.

Our mission is to work towards a brand-new world where God-given, inalienable human rights are honoured and respected worldwide.

For this to happen, we need highly intelligent, hardworking, and passionate people like you to join us.

Areas we need help include: health, science, ecology, arts, history, family, fundraising, business, and finance, plus much more.

Requirements:

- Be passionate, hardworking, and humble.
- Complete tasks efficiently.
- Must have experience in your field.
- Proficient English speaking is preferred.
- Be available to work the hours required to complete the task.

Opportunities for growth:

- A 1-year position with the option to extend if you so choose.
- This is a voluntary, work-related opportunity.
- Accredited with a reference, if needed for future work.
- Internationally recognized work experience.
- Become a peace ambassador of NWA and gain diplomatic immunity and sovereignty.
- Free advertising of your services on our members' board.
- Learn from elders and experts about humanitarian issues.
- Free training on peace ambassador work, if you so choose.
- Contribute to making this world a better place.
- Be the change you want to see.

Students will be allowed to advertise their contact details, and NWA would be more than happy to help promote them for their future work on a full-time, part-time, or freelance basis.

These positions are virtual, allowing you to work from the comfort of your home, with an amazing team supporting you.
